Mihi from Te Kaiwhakatere Chief Executive Officer

Tēnei te karamihi te haere ake nei ki runga ki a koe mōu i whakatinana i ngā āwhero i manakohia i te whakarewatanga o te waka o mātauranga, tēnei ka whakamiha. Tēnei tonu ko reo rāhiri e karanga ana kia karapinepine mai koutou ko tō rahi ki tēnei kaupapa whakanui i ngā ihu oneone, i ngā ihupuku kua puta i tēnei tau. Nau piki mai, nau kake mai ki tēnei rangi nui whakaharahara ōu.

Tēnā koe,

Watching our taura take to the stage for their graduation always fills me with immense pride and reconnects the mahi we do with our purpose – you, our taura.

It is why we do what we do, and seeing the smiles on the faces of our graduates is one reward for our efforts.

Our graduation ceremonies are the high point of the year for not only taura and kaiako, but the organisation as a whole and no doubt your whānau are brimming with aroha for you at this point in your learning journey.

Our graduation ceremonies are the high point of the year for not only taura and kaiako, but the organisation as a whole and no doubt your whānau are brimming with aroha for you at this point in your learning journey.

Your graduation day is known as He Puāwaitanga, which means ‘to come to fruition’. You began your journey with a goal in mind, and today the achievement of this goal has become a reality.

This achievement is the culmination of months and sometimes years of hard work and is a fitting tribute to the efforts you have made under challenging circumstances.

Congratulations to you on your graduation. We’re thrilled to celebrate with you, your whānau, your classmates and your kaiako. I hope you will take some time to reflect on your accomplishment and acknowledge those who have helped and supported you along the way.

‘Kia Angitu Te Taura | Taura Success’ is our mission at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, and we know success looks different for every taura, so reflect on your own journey and take it all in. Success could mean you’ve graduated with a new qualification that will help you progress at work, or assist you in getting the job you’re chasing. Or perhaps, you’ve pursued a tohu that enables you to make positive contributions to your whānau, marae, hapū and iwi. Regardless of the educational path you’ve taken, it’s been our privilege to be alongside you and part of it all.

At Te Wānanga o Aotearoa, our vision is ‘He Takapau Mātauranga, He Whānau Huarewa | Whānau Transformation Through Education’ and it’s a vision as we see how education can transform the lives of those who seek it. I urge you to make good use of your education to benefit others in your whānau, your hapū, iwi and your community - but most importantly, yourself.

It is our belief that the education you have received will present you with new opportunities and I encourage you to embrace them.

I also believe in lifelong learning and hope you will consider continuing to study with Te Wānanga o Aotearoa soon or in the future. We’ve loved having you as a taura and no matter the future path you take, you will always be part of our whānau at Te Wānanga o Aotearoa.

Congratulations again on your graduation today.

Enjoy it - you’ve earned it.

Karyn Matiaha

Studied: Kāwai Raupapa - Certificate in Māori & Indigenous Art Level 4
Strand: Māori Performing Arts

Karyn Matiaha (Ngāi Tūhoe, Ngāti Kahungunu ki Wairarapa, Ngāriki Kaiputahi) was quite literally brought up in the world of Māori performing arts, going along to classes run by Te Wānanga o Aotearoa from the moment she was born.

Many of Karyn's whānau studied the Māori Performing Arts programme, including her mum who was hapū (pregnant) with Karyn at the time.

"Even when I was born I would be taken along to all of their practices, their wānanga and their performances. From when I was in my mum's puku (tummy) right up until I went to kōhanga," says Karyn who studied Māori Performing Arts.

For Karyn, completing the certificate and gaining the knowledge and the skills that came from the programme was also her way of giving back to her whānau.

"I just wanted to contribute to the kaupapa (programme) and give back to my mum, my iwi and my whānau. They all studied Māori performing arts because of their love for music, dance and our culture."

Karyn grew up immersed in te ao Māori, attending kōhanga reo, kura kaupapa Māori and was very active in kapa haka.

But since finishing high school she found it hard to stay connected with her culture and the Māori arts.

"Since I left school everything has been te ao Pākehā. So I want to acknowledge my kaiako, Te Rina who brought me back to te ao Māori (Māori world) and Māoritanga (Māori culture) again."

Although Karyn was active in kapa haka throughout her schooling, she still managed to gain a range of new skills from the programme.

"The programme was amazing because even though I was brought up in the kapa haka world it was still so different. They do have similarities but there is a lot of different tikanga (customs)."

Karyn is eager to encourage others to study the programme no matter their ability or confidence, saying, "just go for it, there's a heap of skills, kōrero (narrative) and māramatanga (meaning) behind Māori performing arts."
